

Communiqué

Employers are informed that once they register for a Business Registration Number (BRN), they are automatically registered with the National Pensions Fund and they may use their Business Registration Number (BRN) for payment of Contributions to the National Pensions Fund, National Savings Fund and Human Resource Development Council Act.

Employers are neither contacted nor required to submit any document to the Ministry of Social Security, National Solidarity and Reform Institutions at time of registration.

Ministry of Social Security, National Solidarity and Reform Institutions