GUIDELINES FOR ONLINE APPLICATION FOR STAY AT RECREATION CENTRES

1. The applicant should have a valid email address before making the online application.
2. The applicant will need to indicate his/her preferred choice of Recreation Centre where he/she wishes to be allocated a stay.
3. Once the online application is made successfully, an automatic acknowledgement will be forwarded to the applicant by email, indicating:
  - a) an acknowledgement ID;
  - b) application details as input by applicant; and
  - c) the proposed allocation of stay/s at the selected Recreation Centre:
    - i. one stay only - for individual applicants; and
    - ii. more than one stay - for Associations depending on their strengths
(Refer to Note 11)

Important Note: Allocation of stay/s will be confirmed by officers of the selected Recreation Centre, after verification of all information submitted in the online application form.

4. Duplicate applications made by an individual or Association, during the application period, will not be considered during confirmation stage.
5. The acknowledgement ID will be required for the following purposes:
  - a) when providing the list of names of participants and members;
  - b) for check-in purposes; and
  - c) for any future application and query.
6. Applicable for Associations only: Once the online application is made, the applicant should save and print the Downloadable Form available on: <https://recreation.govmu.org> to fill in the names and the National Identity Card (N.I.C) numbers of members in block letters. The duly filled-in forms should be forwarded, within one week, at the Recreation Centre as selected by the applicant. Those applicants having difficulty in doing so, may contact the nearest Recreation Centre on Telephone numbers provided below, for assistance.
7. A person can benefit from a stay only once, during the period 20 September 2025 to 20 December 2026.
8. The rate payable is Rs 250 per person for a two-night stay.
9. Associations are strongly advised to bring along ONLY MEMBERS OF THEIR RESPECTIVE ASSOCIATIONS.

10. Associations are also advised to request their members not to bring along with them, any valuable belongings during their stay. The Ministry will not be held responsible for loss of any valuable belonging.
11. The maximum number of members allowed per Association depends on the strength of its membership as follows:
- for associations having less than 200 members - only one stay for a maximum of 50 members;
  - for associations having 200 - 499 members - two stays for a maximum of 50 different members per stay; and
  - for associations having more than 500 members - three stays for a maximum of 50 different members per stay.
